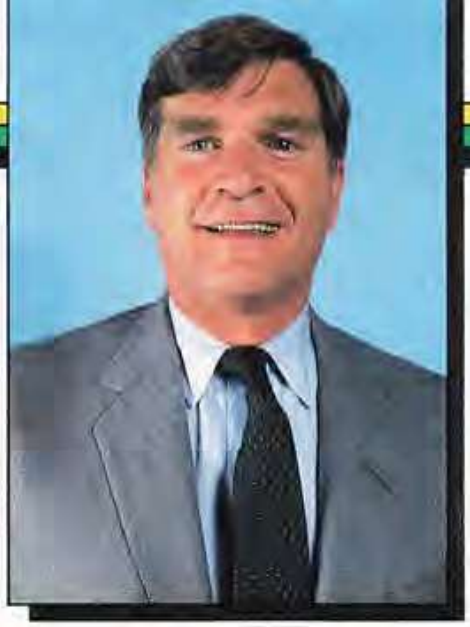
THE ADMINISTRATION



George Gund III

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to the rule.

The North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund, 49, is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating Inc., and takes a regular shift on defense for a Sun Valley senior league team. Last season, he took the Sun Valley Suns to Japan to play in a tournament with a Russian club team and the Japanese national team. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Case Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco.

Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was June of 1978 when he helped put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 percent control of the North Stars.

He is a director of the AmeriTrust Corporation and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he owns a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. He was a founding shareholder and past Chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper Restaurant chain.

In addition, he is an importer and distributor of foreign films. He has been actively involved with the San Francisco International Film Festival and has been Chairman of the Board since 1974. He supports a variety of related organizations including the Cleveland International Film Festival and he is a member of the board of Trustees of the Sundance Institute in Utah.

Gund is a trustee of the George Gund Foundation, the San Francisco Art Institute and the University of Nevada Foundation in Reno. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and a member of the U.S.A. Olympic Hockey Committee for the 1988 Olympic Games. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in San Francisco and are the parents of two boys.

Gordon Gund

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Groton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson, and continues today at the National Hockey League level. Gund, 46, joined his brother George in 1977 in ownership of the former Cleveland Barons. He played a key role in the summer of 1978, when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars and Met Center.

The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service. Gund's involvement in the business of sports and entertainment expanded in 1981, when he and his brother acquired complete ownership of the CAVS/Coliseum Management Company and then again in 1983 when they acquired control of the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers. Gund is co-chief executive officer of the CAVS/Coliseum Management Company. Also in 1983, again with his brother, George, Gund acquired the ownership of Nationwide Advertising Service, Inc., a major recruitment advertising agency. Gund is co-chairman of NAS, which has 34 offices throughout the United States and Canada.

Gund also is president and chief executive officer of Gund Investment Corp., of Princeton, N.J., which manages diversified investments, and is a general partner of GUS Enterprises, Francisco, a firm formed in 1969, which is involved in real estate development, principally on the West coast, for its own account. Gund is a director of Kellogg Company of Battle Creek, Mich., and First Florida Banks, Inc., a Florida bank holding company headquartered in Tampa, Fla.

Gund has also taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. In 1971, he co-founded the now international RP Foundation Fighting Blindness, headquartered in Baltimore, of which he is vice chairman and trustee. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many hundreds of thousands of children and adults, often leading to total blindness. This foundation now has 37 chapters and 32 resource centers in 41 states, and 21 international affiliates.

Gund is president and a trustee of the Gund Collection of Western Art, a traveling collection of 70 works of art, representing some of the most recognized American western artists including Remington, Russell, and Bierstadt. He is also president of the Board of Trustees of Groton School in Groton, Mass.

John F. Karr

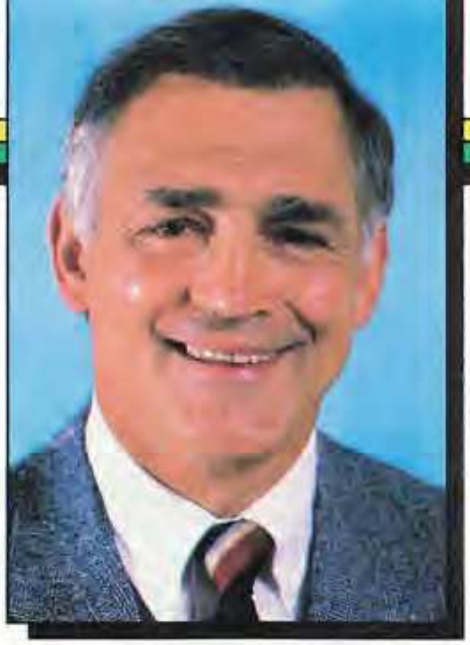
PRESIDENT

John Karr entered hockey management in 1978 after a successful career in business, bringing to his position as president and chief operating officer of the Minnesota North Stars strong leadership based on a broad background in management, finance and marketing. He serves on the Club's Board of Directors and is an alternate governor of the NHL Board of Governors.

His responsibilities include management of the Met Center as well as the North Stars. The Met Center, Minnesota's best-designed and most successful sports and entertainment arena, is operated by a competent, experienced staff under his direction.

Karr, 57, entered the business world in 1953 after he was awarded his MBA at Indiana University. He served on management teams for the Burroughs Corp., The Trane Co., Arthur D. Little, Inc., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and Cole National Corp. For Cole National, a Cleveland-based specialty retail company, he served in several capacities including vice president-planning, vice president-finance and administration, and a member of the board of directors. Karr moved into the National Hockey League during the 1977-78 season as president and chief operating officer of the Cleveland Barons. After completion of the history-making amalgamation of the Cleveland and Minnesota teams, Karr was chosen for the same position with the North Stars.

Karr spent his early days on Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the small town of Allouez. He later moved to Detroit and attended high school in that city. He served two years in the United States Army. Karr graduated in 1952 from Wayne State University. Karr and his wife, Mildred, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of four children, two boys and two girls.



Lou Nanne

GENERAL MANAGER

Lou Nanne has been at the helm of the North Stars for eight seasons. In that span of time Minnesota has risen from the cellar of the National Hockey League to the high-rent district. He took over a team in 1978 that was worst in the NHL and has made it one of the formidable clubs in the league. Make no mistake, the team is his creation. Not one player at this year's training camp was his teammate on the 1977-78 squad. The rest arrived as the result of deals and drafts arranged by Nanne. He not only serves the North Stars as general manager, but also is vice prsident and one of Minnesota's alternate members of the NHL Board of Governors. He recently finished a term as chairman of the General Managers Committee of the NHL.

Nanne has been a North Star ever since he turned professional. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played minor hockey with Rangers General Manager Phil Esposito, but chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. Since 1964 he has served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament. He is the most-recognized hockey figure in the state. Nanne, 45, and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a girl, twin boys, and a third boy.

John Mariucci

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

John Mariucci is this state's most honored and beloved hockey personage — a member of the National Hockey and United States halls of fame, the man for whom the University of Minnesota's rink is named, literally the Godfather of the sport in Minnesota.

There are good and sufficient reasons for these honors and the others he has won during his lifetime. John Mariucci is the symbol of hockey in Minnesota. More than any other living person he stands for the game in this state. The 70-year-old native of northern Minnesota's Iron Range decided long ago to devote himself to promoting and upgrading American and college hockey. He's been at it for more than four decades, and was the guiding force behind the rise of high school and college hockey in the United States.

He played a major role in establishing the tremendously successful Minnesota high school hockey program and in leading the University of Minnesota hockey team to national prominence.

Mariucci went from his home town of Eveleth to the University of Minnesota where he starred in hockey. He was chosen as an All-American player in 1940, his senior year at Minnesota. He also played varsity football for the Golden Gophers.

After graduating from Minnesota, Mariucci joined the Chicago Black Hawks as a defenseman. At that time the NHL employed only a handful of Americans and even fewer college-bred players.

Mariucci played five years of defense in the NHL — all with Chicago. In those five seasons he scored 45 points (11 goals and 34 assists) in 223 games. He appeared in the Stanley Cup playoffs twice for Chicago, in 1940-41 and 1945-46.

In 1952, Mariucci began the first of 14 seasons as head hockey coach at the University of Minnesota. It was there that he coached Herb Brooks and Lou Nanne, under whom he now serves as Assistant General Manager of the North Stars. He encouraged Glen Sonmor to go onto coaching and hired Sonmor to take over the freshman team at Minnesota while he led the U.S. Olympic team to a silver medal in the 1956 Winter Olympics at Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy. Mariucci left the University in 1966 with a record of 215-148-18.

Mariucci joined the North Stars in 1967, serving the team in various positions, largely in the field of collegiate scouting, before Lou Nanne appointed him to his present job.

Mariucci is a member of the United States Hockey Hall of Fame and of the selection committee of the NHL Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Gretchen, live in Edina.

Lorne Henning

COACH

It's safe to say that no new coach has made as much impact on the fortunes of the North Stars as Lorne Henning did in his first season at Minnesota. The 34-year-old Henning guided the team to second place in the Norris Division, losing the championship to Chicago by a single point on the final day of the season. He was chosen one of the finalists in the competition for the Jack Adams Trophy awarded to the National Hockey League's Coach of the Year. The North Stars were the most improved team in the league, finishing 23 points and two positions higher than they did the year before. From the All-Star Game on the team had a 19-9-1 record and a winning percentage of .672.

It was the preparation by Henning and his staff and the work ethic he got across to his players that made the difference in the North Stars and transformed them from fourth-place finishers into near champions.

Henning's coaching heritage owes a debt to Al Arbour of the New York Islanders. He played for Arbour, then served as an assistant under the now-retired coach of four Stanley Cup champion teams.

The new Minnesota coach was involved in all four of the Islanders' Stanley Cups, the first as a player — he assisted on the Cup-winning goal in 1980 — the next three as an assistant coach.

Born in Melfort, Sask., Henning played junior hockey in Estevan, Sask., and New Westminster, B.C., before he was chosen by the Islanders in the second round of the 1972 draft. Except for a couple brief trips to the minors, his entire playing career was spent in the NHL with the Islanders.

In 543 regular-season games he scored 73 goals and 111 assists for 184 points while performing largely as a defensive and penalty-killing specialists.

Henning and his wife, Cathye, are the parents of two sons and a daughter, who was born during last season.

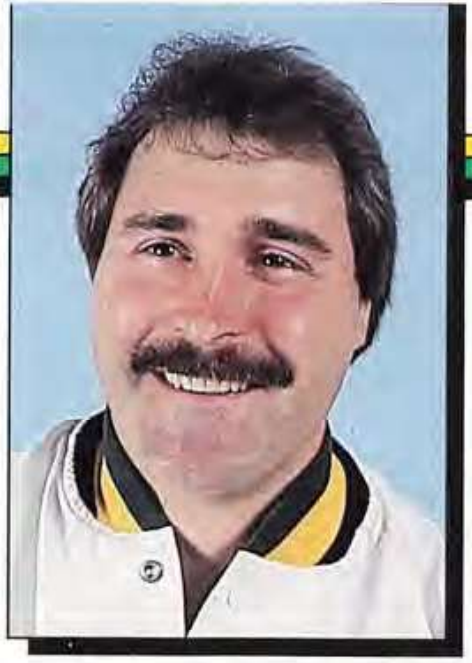
Holds the NHL and Islanders team record of three shorthanded goals in one playoff year. Also is tied for the Islander team record of five career shorthanded playoff goals . . .



Les Jackson

ASSISTANT COACH

Les Jackson is the youngest person on the North Stars' coaching staff, but he has more years in hockey management to his credit than anyone on the Minnesota bench.

Jackson, 33, played junior hockey with Lorne Henning for two seasons at Estevan, Sask., and New Westminister, B.C., of the Western League.

The two took different paths at the conclusion of their junior careers. Henning went on to a professional career. Jackson, drafted by Boston went on to play for Dayton, Ohio, of the International League and Roanoke, Va., of the Southern League before starting a decade as a hockey executive.

The native of the far northern Alberta town of Manning moved into management as a coach at Billings, Mont., and Tucson, Ariz., of the Southwest League. He became assistant coach for New Westminister, then coached Revelstoke of the British Columbia League. He coached the Great Falls, Mont., entry in the WHL. His next five years have been spent in Brandon, Man., where he served as assistant coach, coach and general manager for the WHL franchise.

Jackson is single. He makes his home in Bloomington.

J. P. Parise

ASSISTANT COACH

J. P. Parise has served six years as an assistant coach of the North Stars, a span interrupted by one season as head coach of the club's farm team in Salt Lake City.

Last year he was reunited with Lorne Henning, his teammate when the two played for the New York Islanders.

He spent 11 full seasons and parts of three others in the NHL. The 45-year-old from Smooth Rock Falls, Ont., played left wing eight straight seasons for the North Stars, then went to the Islanders and Cleveland before returning to Minnesota as part of the Cleveland merger in 1978. He was named Minnesota's most valuable player in 1969-70 and played for Team Canada in the historic first series against the Soviet Union.

Parise, who was captain of the North Stars during his last season as a player, is still among the team's all-time leaders with 242 assists. He scored 396 points and played 588 games. At the time of his retirement in September of 1979, he had played the most games of any active performer.

Parise and his wife, Donna, live in Bloomington. They have two sons.

THE PLAYERS

12 Keith Acton

Center

Height: 5-9 —
Weight: 172 lbs.
173 cm. — 78 kg.
Age: 28
(April 15, 1958)

Born: Stouffville, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Stouffville, Ont.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1985-86 — You can't say that Keith Acton is not consistent. Over three seasons with the North Stars he has scored 55, 58 and 58 points. But his goal totals have been on the rise — 17 in 1983-84, 20 in 1984-85, 26 last season. Not at all bad for a center who often draws the assignment of shadowing the opposition's No. 1 offensive player. His play in that role is so effective that any points he scores come as a bonus. Acton also is one of the North Stars' prime penalty killers. Speaking of infractions, he reached a career high of 100 minutes in the penalty box last season.

His Game — Acton's game combines both offense and defense. He is a good goal-scorer and excellent with the puck. He is an aggressive player who is capable of going head-to-head against the top offensive centers in the league. His style is based on hard work, mobility, tenacity. He is a penetrating offensive player. His defensive game is a model of diligence. His total game is a reflection of the work ethic.

Career — Instant success was not the path for Acton. As a draft choice he was far down the list (103rd) when Montreal chose him in 1978. He went back to his junior team in Peterborough, Ont., for the 1978-79 season and then spent two years in Montreal's AHL outpost in Halifax, Nova Scotia, preparing for his NHL debut. When he did join the Canadiens, he was ready and spent three solid seasons in their lineup before his departure for Minnesota.

Notes — Enjoys golf, swimming and reading . . . Played for NHL coaches Roger Neilson and Gary Green when he was a junior at Peterborough . . . Married, his wife's name is Susan . . . They are the parents of a daughter, Brooke, born last season . . . Nickname is Woody . . . Works at a car dealership in Stouffville during the off-season . . . Player he respects most is Montreal's Bob Gainey.

Obtained — Obtained from Montreal Oct. 28, 1983 along with Mark Napier and Montreal's third choice in the 1984 Entry Draft for Bobby Smith.

Don Beaupre

Goaltender

Height: 5-8 —
Weight: 162 lbs.
170 cm. — 73 kg.
Age: 25
(Sept. 19, 1961)

Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Burnsville, Minn.

1985-86 — Don Beaupre became the North Stars' starting goalie midway through the 1985 playoffs against Chicago. His performance in that role inspired enough confidence in him so that Minnesota felt free to trade veteran Gilles Meloche and Rollie Melanson. Placed in the role of No. 1, Beaupre responded with a season that was in many ways the best ever recorded by a North Stars goalie. During the second half of the season he rang up 14 straight victories, easily a record for Minnesota and only three short of the all-time NHL mark. He won every game he played in February and was named Player of the Month in the NHL. It was the first time a North Star ever has been so honored.

His Game — Beaupre depends on speed of hand and foot for his success in goal. Given his size, he has to move quickly to stop the kinds of shots he faces in the NHL. He has an especially fast glove hand and is adept at going down at the right time and getting up soon enough to frustrate his foes. He also is a combative performer, defending his crease with uncommon ferocity.

Career — Beaupre arrived in the NHL to rave notices. He started in the NHL All Star game at the age of 19 and finished third in voting for rookie of the year. His play fell off the next season and there was speculation that he was a one-season wonder. However, his showing the next four seasons has proved that he has earned his place among the league's goalies. His performance in 1985-86 earned him Comeback Goalie of the Year honors in the Hockey News.

Notes — Nickname is Bobo . . . Played junior hockey in Sudbury, Ont. . . . Plays shortstop for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament each summer in Niagara Falls . . . Likes to watch pro wrestling . . . Was the winning goalie in Minnesota's only Stanley Cup finals victory . . . Enjoys golf . . . Beaupre was married in June of 1985. His wife's name is Kim. His name appears to be French, but he is German by descent.

Obtained — Minnesota's second choice (37th overall) in 1980 Entry Draft.

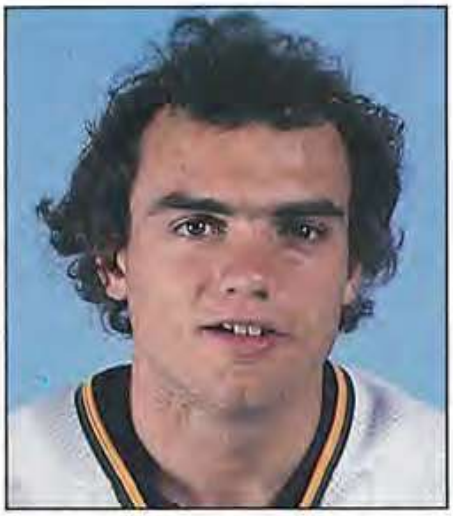
23 Brian Bellows

Right Wing



Height: 5-11 —
Weight: 195 lbs.
181 cm. — 89 kg.
Age: 22
(Sept. 1, 1964)

Born:
St. Catherines, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Eden Prairie, Minn.
Left Handed,
Shoots Right

1985-86 — You can't say that Brian Bellows rebounded from a less than satisfying season. After all he led the North Stars in scoring in 1984-85. But the comparison of 1985-86 to 1984-85 is similar to the difference between butter and margarine. He played an immense role in the team's splendid second half. Bellows played 20 straight games in which he scored at least one point, breaking a team record (17 by Jude Drouin in 1970-71). His streak was the fourth longest recorded in the National League last season. He also turned in his first NHL hat trick, a four-goal, 10-gallon performance Dec. 11 in Detroit. Bellows reached a personal best when he wound up the season with 48 assists.

His Game — Bellows is not a finesse player, but a grinder and a good all-around player. He is an intense competitor who is 100 percent into the game all the time. He has been the North Stars' most consistent player during much of his four-year career in the National League.

Career — Bellows' final year of junior, which culminated in the Memorial Cup title for his Kitchener, Ont., team, saw him play under the blinding glare of media attention from start to finish. He was the only entrant in what was called the Bellows Sweepstakes, the duel among NHL teams to gain the No. 1 overall draft choice and his services. Play during his first four years in the NHL was conducted under more-normal circumstances, but Bellows still attracts more attention than many of his teammates.

Notes — Bellows is single . . . His girl friend, Cynthia Peterson, was chosen Miss Minnesota of 1986 . . . His father is foreman at a GM plant . . . He played for former Chicago Coach Orv Tessier at Kitchener in 1980-81 when he captained his team to the Memorial Cup title . . . Served as the North Stars' captain in 1983-84 when an injury forced Craig Hartsburg out of play . . . Attended The College of St. Thomas the last two summers . . . Enjoys windsurfing . . . He was a monthly winner of the North Stars/General Electric Community Service Award . . . Very active in the Special Olympics program in Minnesota.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (second overall) in 1982 Entry Draft.

Todd Bergen

Center

Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 185 lbs.
191 cm. — 84 kg.
Age: 23
(July 11, 1963)

Born: Prince Albert, Sask.
Off-Season Home: Prince Albert, Sask.

1985-86 — Todd Bergen, citing differences with Philadelphia coach Mike Keenan, refused to start last season with the Flyers. His trade to the North Stars November 29 gave the impression that Bergen wished to return to his impressive rookie form, but he never had the chance. A week into training with the North Stars, strained abdominal muscles were revealed, and Bergen failed to play a game all season.

His Game — He is a free-wheeling, offensive-minded center with an excellent shot. Asked to described his style, he likened himself to former Minnesota center Bobby Smith. He uses his size and reach to excellent advantage.

Career — Bergen spent the start of his first professional season with the Hershey Bears of the AHL. After 38 games and 39 points, the Flyers called up Bergen for their stretch drive to the playoffs. Bergen had 11 goals in 14 regular season games, and led all rookies in playoff scoring with 13 points in the Flyer's 17 post-season games. Bergen spent his junior career with his hometown team, the Prince Albert Raiders of the Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League and later of the Western League, running up successive seasons of 30, 34 and 57 goals. He was drafted by the Flyers in the fifth round (98th overall) of the 1982 Entry Draft.

Notes — He is an excellent golfer, a minus-one handicap . . . Scored two goals, including the game winner in his first NHL game Jan. 8, 1985 against Vancouver . . . Started rehabilitation on his stomach injury with Tom Coplin, the North Stars' physical therapist March 1, 1986.

Obtained — From Philadelphia with Ed Hospodar in exchange for Dave Richter and Bob Berglund on Nov. 29, 1985.

Injury Update — Bergen underwent surgery in September to repair an area of scar tissue in the muscle wall of his stomach. He is not expected to be ready for play until December.

Born: St. Paul, Minn.
Off-Season Home:

1985-86 — No one expected Scott Bjugstad to blossom last season into a premier goal scorer in the NHL. But that's exactly what the young man from the St. Paul suburb of New Brighton accomplished in his second season. He scored 43 goals, an awesome increase of 32 from the previous season. He recorded his first three hat tricks, two of them within a span of six games. At one point he scored 20 goals in 20 games. He finished the regular season with 76 points, 61 more than he scored in all of 1984-85. As a result of those feats, the media people who cover the team regularly voted him the KSTP-AM Trophy as the team's most-improved player.

His Game — Bjugstad was a scoring threat wherever and whenever he played — at Irondale High School, at the University of Minnesota and for the United States Olympic team. He submerged that portion of his game in 1984-85 when he was learning the ropes in his first NHL season. But the offensive end of his game surfaced last year when Coach Lorne Henning placed him on a line with center Neal Broten and right winger Dino Ciccarelli. Bjugstad has a powerful shot that he unleashes with pinpoint accuracy. His linemates gave him plenty of chances to use it and he responded with a shower of goals.

Career — An outstanding high school player at Irondale — all-conference and all-state as a senior, Bjugstad achieved more stardom at the University of Minnesota. He won the Western College Hockey Association scoring championship and was named to the WCHA all-star team in his senior year. He was a finalist in voting for the Hobey Baker Award for college hockey's most valuable player. He was a regular on the U.S. Olympic team that competed in 1984 in Sarjevo, Yugoslavia.

Notes — Named as a high school All-American in soccer . . . Enjoys hunting and fishing . . . Majored in business at the U of M . . . Played in three National Sports Festivals . . . Was an alternate captain his senior year at Minnesota . . . Suffered a broken nose in his very first NHL game . . . Also plays center, his position during one of his college seasons . . . Played all 80 games last season.

Obtained — Minnesota's 13th choice (181st overall) in the 1981 Entry Draft.

1985-86 — Neal Broten made history on March 26, 1986 at Maple Leaf Gardens where he recorded two assists against the Maple Leafs and became the first United States-born player to score 100 points in a National Hockey League season. It was the climax of an exceptional year for Broten. He led the team in scoring — his final total was 105 points, third highest ever by a North Star. His assist total of 76 set a club record. He and linemates Dino Ciccarelli and Scott Bjugstad combined for team records for goals, assists and points by a line. At the end of the season, his teammates voted him the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup awarded to the North Stars' most valuable player. For the second year in a row he played all 80 regular-season games and every playoff contest.

His Game — Broten is a skilled goalscorer but his strongest role is as a playmaker. It's a pleasure for wingers to play with him. Time after time he puts them in for excellent chances. It's no coincidence that Dino Ciccarelli's all-time single-season record of 55 goals was set when he spent most of his time playing on Broten's line. Nor is it surprising that Scott Bjugstad scored a personal high of 43 goals last season after joining Broten's line.

Career — Name an honor and it's more than likely that Broten has won it. He was a star for Roseau High School in two Minnesota State tournaments. He was a gold-medal winner in the 1980 Winter Olympics, an All-American at the University of Minnesota and recipient of college hockey's highest award, the Hobey Baker Award, in 1981. He was a Stanley Cup finalist with the North Stars in 1981, a performer for the Campbell Conference in the 1983 NHL All-Star Game and again in 1986, winner of the 1982-83 Emery Edge Trophy awarded to the top plus/minus player on the team and winner of the North Stars' MVP award in 1983-84 and 1985-86.

Notes — Neal's brother, Aaron, a teammate at Roseau and the U of M, plays for the New Jersey Devils . . . A second brother, Paul, played in the state tournament with Roseau and has followed his brothers to the University of Minnesota . . . Scored a goal in his first NHL game . . . Has been chosen as the most popular North Star by a vote of fans the last four of the last five years . . . Neal and his wife Sally are the parents of two daughters . . . He has played 162 consecutive regular-season games.

Obtained — Minnesota's third choice (42nd overall) in the 1979 Entry Draft.

30 Jon Casey

Goaltender

Height: 5-10 —
Weight: 155 lbs.
178 cm. — 70 kg.
Age: 24
(March 29, 1962)

Born:
Grand Rapids, Minn.
Off-Season Home:
Grand Forks, N.D.
Right Handed,
Shoots Right

1985-86 — Jon Casey made an impressive impact when he arrived in the NHL on a full-time basis last season. He won three of his first four starts and went into overtime before losing the fifth. He then ran off five straight triumphs for an imposing 8-2-0 record in his first 10 games. The ascending curve of victories flattened out at that point. But he ended the season on an upbeat note with two straight wins. Casey finished the regular season with an 11-11-1 record and a 3.89 goals-against average. He did not see action in any of the North Stars' five playoff outings.

His Game — He does not have the bulk to cover a vast area of the net, so Casey depends on fast reactions and a finely-honed knowledge of the angles to halt the opposing shooters. You might think he is beaten on a shot, but his speed and ability to recover from a perilous situation often beats the odds. Casey is an aggressive goalkeeper, often ranging far from the crease in order to cut the angle on an opponent's shot.

Career — Casey went from stardom at Grand Rapids High School to stardom at North Dakota University to stardom in the American League at Baltimore while scarcely missing a beat. He was an all-WCHA first team goalie as a sophomore at North Dakota — and again as a senior — and was chosen as the all-conference second-team goalkeeper as a junior. Over four seasons in college he managed a save percentage of 91.2 percent and a goals-against average of 2.89. He was named to the AHL first all-star team and chosen rookie of the year in 1984-85.

Notes — Played for Grand Rapids in the Minnesota State High School tournament . . . Had six shutouts in his career at North Dakota . . . Recorded four shutouts in 1984-85 at Baltimore . . . Had a 25-10-2 record in college . . . Casey is married . . . His wife's name is Brenda . . . They are the parents of a daughter and a son . . . Studied marketing in college at North Dakota.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent on April 1, 1984.

Dino Ciccarelli

Right Wing

Height: 5-10 —
Weight: 180 lbs.
175 cm. — 82 kg.
Age: 26
(Feb. 8, 1960)

Born: Sarnia, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Eden Prairie, Minn.
Right Handed,
Shoots Right

1985-86 — After recording the lowest totals of his NHL career in 1984-85 — a season blighted by injuries — he returned last season with 44 goals, 45 assists and 89 points, the second highest totals in all categories during his six seasons in the league. His performance was all the more noteworthy in that he did not score a goal in the team's first 17 games. Once he found his touch he scored in bunches. He managed three hat tricks and 10 multiple-goal games. He scored 16 goals in the month of March, including all three of his hat tricks. He and linemates Neal Broten and Scott Bjugstad combined for team line records for goals, assists and points in one season.

His Game — When Dino is on top of his game, he is in constant motion. He darts in and out of the crease, is in front of the cage at one moment, in back of it the next. That frees him to receive the passes, gobble up the rebounds and score the goals. It often goes unnoticed, but his defensive game displays the same kind of effort. The largest improvement last season was shown in his passing game. Time after time he chose to set up Bjugstad or Broten rather than take a shot himself.

Career — His NHL career has been played in a blaze of glory for the most part. Dino has been chosen to play in two All-Star Games. He holds the team record for goals in one season with 55. He set an NHL record by scoring 14 goals as a rookie in the 1981 Stanley Cup playoffs. All of this might not have taken place had General Manager Lou Nanne not signed him as a free agent after a fractured femur nearly wrote an end to his career while he played junior hockey in 1978.

Notes — He skated with a metal rod in his leg for one season and kept it as a souvenir . . . Has two brothers and a sister . . . His father is a welder . . . One of the most-popular North Stars . . . Dino and his wife, Linda, became parents for the first time last season. Their first-born, a girl, is named Genna. Genna was seriously burned last fall, but has been making an excellent recovery . . . He grew up on the same Sarnia street as teammate Tony McKegney . . . Dino holds the team career record of 12 hat tricks.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent, September 28, 1979.

2 Curt Giles

Defense

Height: 5-8 —
Weight: 179 lbs.
170 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 27
(Nov. 30, 1958)

Born: The Pas, Man.
Off-Season Home: Edina, Minn.

1985-86 — Curt Giles played in pain through almost all of last year, then had part of the ring finger of his left hand amputated late in the regular season. It's a measure of his devotion to the game that he returned to the ice for the playoffs. It's a measure of his talent that he won the team's Emergy Edge Award for the second year in a row with a plus-19 record. It's a measure of the respect he has earned that he was voted the club's outstanding defenseman for the second year in a row by members of the media who cover the team on a regular basis.

His Game — Body checks are what most people notice about Giles — especially opposing forwards. He has the Leo Boivin-style hip check, which is almost a lost art in today's game, and he uses it with deadly effectiveness. Giles is a defensive-minded player and a very consistent player. In the words of former Coach Glen Sonmor, "he is an every-nighter."

Career — Giles played only a half year in the minors after graduation from Minnesota-Duluth. His college career was splendid. He won All-American honors twice at UMD where he enrolled as a 16-year-old freshman. He has played every game of his NHL career with the North Stars.

Notes — Was named the North Stars' most valuable player by his teammates in 1980-81 and again in 1984-85 . . . Curt and his wife, Mary Pat, have a son, Michael, and a daughter, Ashley . . . Is one of the team's alternate captains and one of the most popular players amongst his teammates . . . Has a degree in secondary education from UMD . . . Enjoys golf . . . Nickname is Pengy, short for Penguin and a reference to his stature . . . He is active in raising funds for research and treatment of spina bifida.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (54th overall) in 1978 Entry Draft.

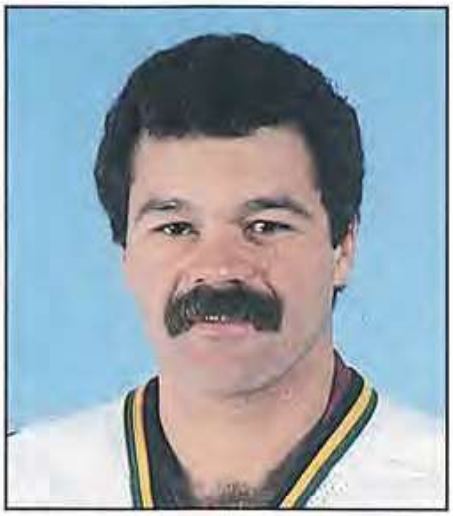
21 Dirk Graham

Right Wing/Left Wing



Height: 5-11 —
Weight: 190 lbs.
180 cm. — 86 kg.
Age: 27
(July 29, 1959)

Born: Regina, Sask.
Off-Season Home:
Regina, Sask.
Right Handed,
Shoots Right

1985-86 — Dirk Graham played his first full National Hockey League season last year. His performance left no room for doubt that he belongs in the NHL. He was one of only four North Stars to play the full schedule of 80 games. He scored a respectable 22 goals and 33 assists. He led the team with four shorthanded goals. He not only skated a regular shift but also saw duty in a penalty-killing role. He scored at least one goal in 21 of the team's regular-season games. During the playoffs he scored both of the North Stars' game-winning goals.

His Game — Graham plays either wing with equal ability. That's a quality that endears him to the Minnesota coaching staff. He's an exciting offensive player, one who gets his shot away swiftly and accurately. His record reveals that he has been able to score at whatever level he has played. He also is able to take care of himself in heavy traffic, a lesson that was learned by several opposition players last season.

Career — A 1979 draft selection by Vancouver, Graham has had to work himself up from the lower reaches of hockey's professional ranks. He advanced from the International League — where he scored 70 goals for Toledo in 1982-83 — to the Central League, then to the American League before breaking into the NHL. Instant success did not greet him, but the process of learning his trade in the minors has stood him in good stead.

Notes — Graham played junior hockey for Regina, Sask., in the Western League, scoring 48 and 49 goals in his last two seasons . . . He was 89th choice overall in the 1979 draft . . . Graham is single . . . Made the all star teams in both the International (1982-83) and Central (1983-84) leagues . . . One of his junior coaches was present Edmonton scout Lorne Davis . . . He led the North Stars in the 1986 playoffs with 23 shots, a team record 10 in one game.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent May 17, 1983.

5 Jari Gronstrand

Defense

Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 197 lbs.
189 cm. — 89 kg.
Age: 23
(November 14, 1962)

Born: Tampere, Finland
Off-Season Home: Tampere, Finland
Left Handed, Shoots Left

1985-86 — Gronstrand, the North Stars' fifth round draft choice in last year's NHL Entry Draft, scored 10 goals and seven assists for his Finnish club team, Tappara, last season. Before that time, the 23 year old was passed up in five NHL drafts, causing his lawyer, Don Baizley, to call his client, "a classic late bloomer."

His Game — Although Gronstrand is tall (6'3"), he lacks the strength to be a physical defenseman. True to his European schooling, Gronstrand is a finesse player, specializing in stickhandling, positioning, and passing.

Career — According to Baizley, the North Stars had seen Gronstrand play a number of times before drafting him in 1986. Baizley said that North Stars' Director of Player Development, Glen Sonmor, told him last year before the draft: "I don't care what he looked like two years ago, I like what I see now." Gronstrand played for the Finnish National Team for one season.

Notes — At last years June draft, General Manager Lou Nanne commented that if one draftee could step into the lineup right away, that person would probably be Gronstrand . . . Nanne and the rest of the coaching staff were so impressed with Gronstrand's ability during rookie camp, they held him from nightly rookie scrimmages and asked him to report to the veteran's camp the next week . . . Due to his unfamiliarity with the English language, the North Stars enrolled Gronstrand in a Berlitz language course during training camp . . . Until Gronstrand feels comfortable with English, he will use the interpretive service of North Stars' goalie and fellow Finn, Kari Takko.

Obtained — Signed with the North Stars June 30, 1986, after drafted by the North Stars in fifth round of the 1986 NHL Entry Draft.

Marc Habscheid

Center

Height: 6-0 —
Weight: 180 lbs.
182 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 23
(March 1, 1963)

Born: Swift Current, Sask.
Off-Season Home: Wymark, Sask.

1985-86 — At the start of last season, Edmonton assigned Marc Habscheid to Nova Scotia of the AHL. Habscheid, who had scored 385 points in 255 minor league games, instead opted for business courses at Northern Alberta Technical College until his trade to the North Stars December 20. Habscheid's first North Star game was a memorable one — he scored goals on his only two shots of the game. Those goals were his only two of the year in the NHL, as he spent most of last season as the North Stars' leading scorer at Springfield.

His Game — His game is that of an offensive center, a quality found in large measure on the Edmonton and Minnesota rosters. Edmonton has Gretzky and Messier to fill the nets; the North Stars have Broten, Acton, and Maruk. Habscheid is a proven goal scorer if he can break into the starting lineup.

Career — Although making it in the NHL has not been easy for Habscheid, passing grades in the minors have not been a problem. Before he was drafted by the Oilers in the sixth round in 1981, Habscheid scored 34 goal and 97 points for Saskatoon of the Western Junior League. The next year Habscheid drew comparisons to Gretzky by pumping in 64 goals and 87 assists in 55 games for Saskatoon. Since that time, Habscheid has 187 points in 169 minor league games, 31 points in 80 NHL games.

Notes — Habscheid is a good friend of Wayne Gretzky — in fact, Habscheid stayed at Gretzky's home when called up by the Oilers . . . Despite his affiliation with the Oilers, Habscheid has never played in an NHL playoff game . . . Habscheid starred for the Canadien Junior team that won the World Championship in 1982 . . . The Oilers drafted Grant Fuhr, Paul Houck, and Gord Sherven along with Habscheid in 1981 . . .

Obtained — From Edmonton with Emanuel Viveiros and Don Barber in exchange for Gord Sherven and Don Biggs on December 20, 1985.

Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 207 lbs.
185 cm. — 91 kg.
Age: 28
(March 19, 1958)

Born: Eskiltuna, Sweden
Off-Season Home: Sodertalje, Sweden

1985-86 — Mats Hallin didn't score his first goal until 39 games into the season, but he could not have chosen a better time to register his first North Stars' goal. The date was Jan. 7. The site was Nassau County Coliseum. The opponents were the New York Islanders. Hallin's goal not only was scored against the team that traded him to Minnesota, but it also was the game winner. He saw limited duty during the first half of the season, but played on a much more regular basis from the All-Star break until the end of the season.

His Game — A tough and determined player in front of the goal, Hallin is larger and a more physical player than most European performers. He plays both wings, but feels more at ease on the left side. Coach Lorne Henning was familiar with Hallin's abilities from the days when both of them were part of the Islanders organization. He put them to good use, especially when the game loomed as one that demanded a grinding style of play.

Career — A prodigy as a youngster in Sweden — he played Second Division hockey at 15 and for Sodertalje in the Elite Division at the age of 17 — Hallin was drafted by Washington and by Edmonton of the WHA in 1978. He did not sign with either team, but chose to go with the Islanders as a free agent in 1981. After a season and a half of outstanding play for Indianapolis of the CHL, he was brought up to stay with the Islanders.

Notes — Hallin is married . . . He and his wife, Helene, are the parents of a son, Per, and a daughter, Johanna . . . Spends his off seasons in Sweden, just north of Stockholm . . . Gained his first notice in the United States when he scored 10 points for Sweden in the 1978 World Junior tournament . . . Made the 1982-83 CHL All-Star team . . . Is trained as a carpenter . . . Recorded a career high 86 minutes in penalties last season.

Obtained — From the Islanders Sept. 9, 1985 for future considerations.

1985-86 — It took time last season for Capt. Craig Hartsburg to regain the form that made him one of the National Hockey League's dominant defensemen. He had missed the better part of two seasons when knee and hip injuries knocked him out of the lineup. The inevitable erosion of skills that followed the long layoffs made the early portion of 1985-86 a time of frustration for him. But he persevered and by mid-season he was the Hartsburg of old. It is no coincidence that the rise of the North Stars during the season's second half paralleled Hartsburg's return to full vigor.

His Game — A strong skater, Hartsburg is the prototype of a splendid offensive defensman. An excellent puck handler, he can control a game by slowing down the play and setting things in motion. Hartsburg's shot is effective from the point, but he is equally dangerous from short range.

Career — His professional career started early. When he was 18 years old he left junior hockey to join Birmingham of the World Hockey Association. The amalgamation of the WHA with the National League made him available in the Entry Draft of that season. Minnesota selected him in the first round. Since then he has played in three All-Star Games, in two World Championships and in one Stanley Cup final. During 1983-84 and 1984-85 injuries held his total of regular-season contests to 58, but last season he missed only five regular-season outings and played in all five playoff contests.

Notes — Craig and his wife, Peggy, have two children, Christopher and Katie . . . He is the 11th captain in the history of the North Stars . . . Holds team records for assists (60) and points (77) in one season by a defenseman . . . Enjoys fishing trips during the summer . . . He is one of the five North Stars left from the team that competed in the Stanley Cup finals in 1981.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (sixth overall) in 1979 Entry Draft.

1985-86 — You can count last season as a lost season for Tom Hirsch. The youngster, one of the North Stars' brightest prospects, underwent shoulder surgery once late in the 1984-85 season and again early in the 1985-86 season. The balance of the year was spent rehabilitating the shoulder. Hirsch had high hopes of playing either at the start of the season or early in the schedule.

His Game — Hirsch used two years of college, one year with the Olympians and parts of two professional seasons to become a more versatile defenseman. Where he once was considered strictly an offense-oriented defenseman, he now elicits praise for his play in all areas of the position.

Career — He was a varsity regular at the University of Minnesota during both his freshman and sophomore years. He was named the UM's rookie of the year in 1981-82 and helped his team reach the NCAA Final Four in 1982-83. He was named to the 1984 Olympic team and finished second in scoring among the team's defensemen.

Notes — Made All-City his first three years at Patrick Henry High School in Minneapolis and was an all-state player as a senior . . . Received WCHA honorable mention each of two seasons with the University of Minnesota . . . Played for the United States 1982 National team in Helsinki, Finland . . . Majored in psychology at Minnesota . . . Participated in two National Sports Festivals . . . Enjoys tennis . . . Was good enough as a high school football player to attract major-college scholarship offers but opted for hockey . . . Hirsch is single . . . His nickname is Hershey.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (33rd overall) in 1981 Entry Draft.

Injury Update — Hirsch's recovery from his shoulder surgery will keep him out of action until November or December.

1985-86 — The most amazing thing about Dave Langevin last season was that he played in all regular season and playoff games. Knee and shoulder injuries had held him to 56 games with the Islanders the year before. Langevin's consistent play on the ice was no doubt an inspiration to younger North Stars who shuffled into the North Stars' lineup last year.

His Game — Langevin's game is physical, no question about it. His size and sense of timing combine to produce body checks by the bushel. He is very valuable when he works in front of the net, keeping the crease clear of opposing forwards.

RINGTHEBELL77 on Archive.org

Career — His career encompasses four Stanley Cups, all won with the Islanders. It started on the frozen ponds of St. Paul where he grew up to play for Hill High School. He played college hockey for Minnesota-Duluth, then turned professional with Edmonton of the WHA. When the NHL and WHA were merged, his rights reverted to the Islanders where he spent the next six seasons.

Notes — His nicknames are Bammer or Bam Bam . . . Dave and his wife, Debbie, are the parents of two sons, Dave, Jr., and Matthew . . . Played in the 1982-83 All-Star Game . . . Performed for the United States in the 1981 Canada Cup . . . Was coached in high school by former North Stars coach Andre Beaulieu . . . His addition gives the North Stars two ex-UMD Bulldogs on defense. The other is Curt Giles . . . Langevin has not scored a goal since March 3, 1984 . . . His 87 playoff appearances are more than any other North Star.

Obtained — From the New York Islanders in the Waiver Draft Oct. 7, 1985.

1985-86 — Brian Lawton recorded a season that displayed a roller-coaster quality. His downs were followed by ups and his ups were followed by downs. There were points during the year when it looked as if he had realized the promise that made him first choice overall in the 1983 Entry Draft — a string of eight goals in eight games, including his first NHL hat trick; a couple of outstanding playoff performances. There also were a couple of scoring droughts. Overall, Lawton displayed a tendency to play in streaks. The bright side is that the plus streaks lasted longer and that Lawton turned in his best season as a professional.

His Game — He is a tough, determined checker, who forechecks very well and takes the body without taking himself out of position. He is mentally and physically tough and has a tremendous desire to succeed. Lawton is a talented playmaker who seems to enjoy setting up his linemates even more than scoring a goal himself. His passing skills are first rate.

Career — Lawton was chosen Rhode Island High School athlete of the year by USA Today to cap a marvelous career as a schoolboy athlete. He led that state in scoring for two straight years while performing on one of New England's strongest squads. His abilities were such that he was selected to play for the United States in the world junior and world B tourneys. The North Stars then made him the first overall selection in the NHL Entry draft.

Notes — Six of his goals last season were game winners, second highest total on the team . . . He is not the first player chosen from Mount St. Charles High School by the North Stars. Winger Paul Guay (later traded to Philadelphia) was picked by Minnesota in the sixth round in 1981. Teammate Tom McComb, a defenseman, was chosen, also in the sixth round, in June of 1983 . . . Lawton is single . . . He graduated from high school with a 3.2 grade-point average . . . He has three brothers . . . His father, Richard, is a pressman at a Providence newspaper . . . He set a team record for rookies by scoring twice in 19 seconds against Chicago on Nov. 5, 1983.

Obtained — Minnesota's first choice (first overall) in 1983 Entry Draft.

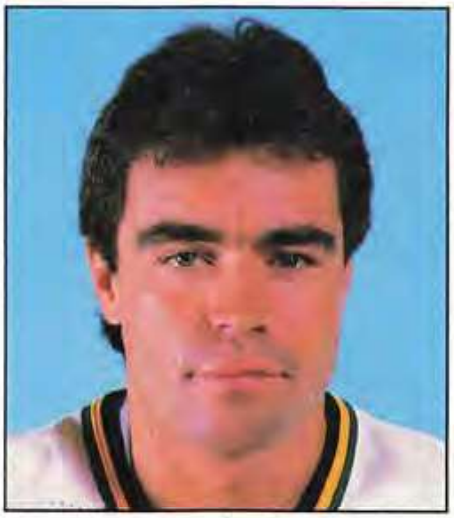
27 Brian MacLellan

Left Wing



Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 212 lbs.
189 cm. — 99 kg.
Age: 27
(Oct. 17, 1958)

Born: Guelph, Ontario
Off-Season Home:
Redondo Beach, Calif.
Left Handed,
Shoots Left

1985-86 — Last year was a transition year for Brian MacLellan. He was traded by the Kings to the Rangers December 9 for Rollie Melanson. Earlier that day, Melanson was traded by the North Stars to the Rangers for a second and fourth round draft choice. MacLellan's West Coast-East Coast season resulted in 45 points on 16 goals and 29 assists. He added six points in the Ranger's playoff surge to the Wales Conference finals.

His Game — MacLellan joins a North Stars' team short of left wingers, due to Steve Payne's rehabilitation from knee surgery. MacLellan adds size (he is the tallest North Stars' forward), and scoring (an average of 24 goals the last three seasons) to the Minnesota lineup.

Career — MacLellan signed as a free agent with the Kings May 12, 1982, after playing both defense and wing in his four years at Bowling Green. He spent most of his rookie season with Nova Scotia of the AHL, before joining the Kings full-time in 1983-84. MacLellan was paired with Marcel Dionne and Dave Taylor the next season, and responded with 31 goals and 54 assists, his best totals to date.

Notes — MacLellan has overcome two physical ailments before joining the North Stars. As a child, he contracted Legges Perthes and was told he may never walk correctly. He then recovered from a broken neck sustained while playing junior hockey.

Obtained — Traded to the North Stars on September 8, 1986 from the New York Rangers in exchange for a fourth round choice in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft.

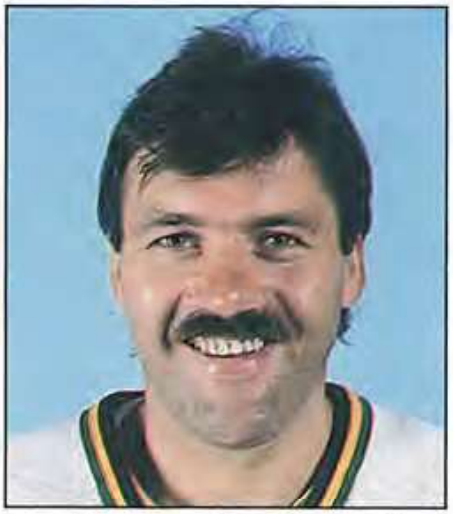
Dennis Maruk

Center



Height: 5-8 —
Weight: 174 lbs.
170 cm. — 79 kg.
Age: 30
(Nov. 17, 1955)

Born: Toronto, Ont.

1985-86 — For the second season in succession, Dennis Maruk's star shone brightest when the North Stars performed in the Stanley Cup playoffs. He amassed 13 points in the five games that Minnesota played. The 13 points and his nine assists established team records in both departments not only for five-game series but also for series of any length. The point total bettered by two his output of the previous playoffs when he managed 11 points in nine contests. Maruk's performance during the regular season varied. He managed one splendid run of points in 12 of 13 games, including one five-point outing. He also went from even to plus-13 in the last 21 games of the season.

His Game — At barely 5-foot-8, Maruk gives up almost half a foot to his average foe. But those who collide with him in the corners more often than not discover him to be small only in height. He is exceptionally powerful in the upper body.

Career — Maruk was drafted in the second round in 1975 by the California Golden Seals. He moved with the Seals from Oakland to Cleveland and eventually to Minnesota after the 1977-78 season when the Barons merged with Minnesota. Maruk went to training camp with the North Stars, but a week into the season he was swapped to the Capitals. In 1981-82 he became the fifth player in league history to score 60 or more goals. He scored 50 the year before.

Notes — Maruk played three years of junior hockey with London of the OHL . . . Averaged 123 points a season during that span . . . Named the OHL's MVP in 1974-75 after scoring 145 points in 65 games for London . . . Nickname is PeeWee . . . A former goalie in box lacrosse . . . Likes golf and tennis . . . Dennis and his wife, Joni, have two children, Jonathan and Sarah.

Obtained — From Washington on July 5, 1983 for Minnesota's second-round draft choice in 1984.

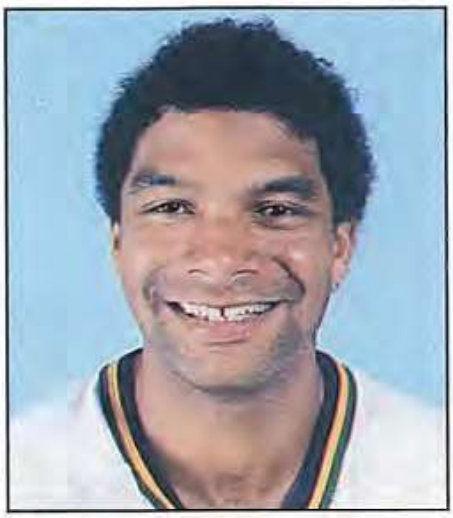
25 Tony McKegney

Left Wing



Height: 6-1 —
Weight: 198 lbs.
185 cm. — 89.1 kg.

(Feb. 15, 1958)

Born:
Montreal, Quebec

Williamsville, N.Y.
Right Handed,
Shoots Left

1985-86 — If history is any guide, Tony McKegney can look forward to a prodigious season in 1986-87. The reason? He had an off-year in 1985-86. His history indicates that a sub-par season is invariably followed by an excellent season. He didn't get off to a slow start last season. One third of the way through the season, he had a respectable 12 goals, including his first hat trick as a North Star against Chicago on Dec. 3. But halfway through the season he still had 12 goals and when the regular season ended, he had recorded 15. A shoulder injury kept him out of 10 contests, but aside from that he was doggec by hard luck around the net.

His Game — Speed and toughness are McKegney's stock in trade in the NHL. He not only has a marvelous turn of speed on end-to-end rushes, but also is very quick off the mark. He also has been, before his last two seasons, a durable performer, one who had missed only 14 games over the last five of the last seven years.

Career — Except for 24 games at the outset of his career, McKegney has spent all of his time as a professional in the NHL. A 1978 second-round draft choice by Buffalo, he played five years for the Sabres before he was dealt to Quebec in 1983. He has alternated 30-goal years with 20-goal seasons — before last season — reaching a peak of 36 tallies for Buffalo in 1982-83.

Notes — Grew up on the same street in Sarnia, Ont., as Dino Ciccarelli . . . Can play all three forward positions . . . Played junior hockey in Kingston, Cnt. . . . Won the Nordiques' award as best-conditioned player in 1983-84 . . . One of the North Stars' most-accomplished speakers . . . Played for the North Stars in the Molson NHL slo-pitch tournament last summer in Niagara Falls . . . His wife's name is Sue. They became the parents of their first child, a boy, during last season.

Obtained — From Quebec Dec. 14, 1984 with Bo Berglund for Brad Maxwell and Brent Ashton.

1985-86 — Frantisek Musil, four-year veteran of the Czechoslovakian National Team, was called by many NHL scouts the best defenseman at the 1986 World Hockey Championships in Moscow. It is with those credentials that Lou Nanne set off for Yugoslavia July 15 in search of his 1983 second round draft choice. When the two returned home July 18, Musil was all smiles as he met the press at the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport. "When you play hockey for Czechoslovakia, the World Championships are the best you can get. The next step is the National Hockey League".

His Game — At the press conference, Nanne compared Musil to Rod Langway of the Washington Capitals. "He is big, strong, and tough, well equipped to play in the NHL," said Nanne. Musil agreed, stating that, "I looked forward to the games against the United States and Canada because I like the hard games with the hitting. I saw Langway play in the Canada Cup, and I would say I resemble his style. I'm definitely stronger on defense than offense."

Career — Last season, playing for his club team, Dukla Jihlava, Musil had three goals and seven assists in 35 games. Musil's Czechoslovakian National Team won the 1985 World Championships.

Notes — After arriving in the Twin Cities, Musil first flew to Edmonton with his agent, Rich Winter, to learn about North American responsibilities including checkbooks. Musil also went shopping at the West Edmonton Mall, something he said "was very different than Czechoslovakia." He also went water skiing before returning to the Twin Cities July 29 to train for the upcoming season. Over the summer, Musil also flew to Detroit to spend a week with former Czechoslovakian teammate, Petr Klima.

Musil was a teammate of Petr Klima for two years with Dukla Jihlava . . . His father works in a Czechoslovakian chemical factory while his mother cooks at a nursery school . . . Musil has a 16-year-old brother.

Obtained — Signed a multi-year contract July 18, 1986. Musil was the North Stars' second round (38th overall) selection in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft.

Born:
Nynashamn, Sweden

Shoots Left

1985-86 — Kent Nilsson's scoring totals drooped last season, but he recorded one of his best plus-minus figures. Nilsson ended the regular season with 16 goals, 44 assists and 60 points, all below his average for nine years in the WHA and the NHL. But he finished the season at a plus-4. He fell as low as a minus-1 only twice and ranked a high at plus-11 during the year. Nilsson pointed out that he attempted to even out his game, eliminating both the lows and the highs. Another factor in his season record was the total of 16 games he missed with various ailments. He was in top condition for the playoffs and was one of the most effective North Stars in the five games they played against St. Louis.

His Game — While Nilsson has scored a ton of goals — 245 in the NHL and 81 in the WHA — it is as a playmaker that he truly shines. He won the nickname of Magic for good reason. The passes he deals to his teammates often appear magical. He is at his most effective on the power play where he quarterbacked the Minnesota attack from the point. Nilsson is gifted with terrific speed in all directions.

Career — He played for AIK in Sweden's Elite Division, then burst upon the North American scene when he won WHA rookie of the year honors in 1977-78. Nilsson was taken by Atlanta when the NHL and WHA merged and tied a team record by leading the Flames in scoring in five of the six years he played for them.

Notes — Married, Kent's wife is named Berit. They spend the off-season in Sweden where he enjoys the time he spends on the golf course . . . Holds the Flames' record for career points (562), goals (229) and is second in assists (333) . . . Scored five points on a goal and four assists when Sweden eliminated the United States, 9-2, in last fall's Canada Cup tournament . . . Played for an Avco Cup winning team at Winnipeg in 1977-78 . . . Was the best man at the wedding of former Calgary teammate Paul Reinhart last summer.

Obtained — From Calgary June 15, 1985 with a third-round Entry Draft choice in either 1986 or 1987 for the North Stars' second round Entry Draft choices in the 1985 and 1987 drafts.

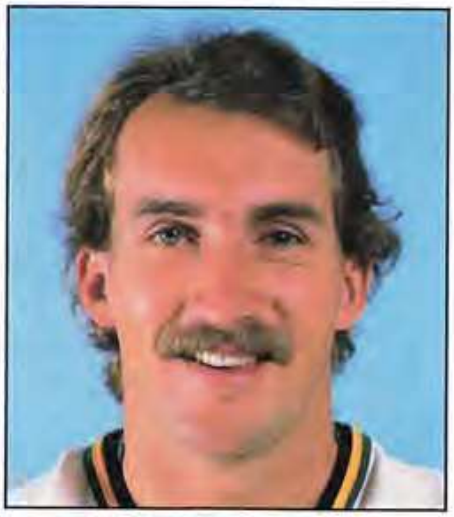
Left Wing



Height: 6-2 —
Weight: 215 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ont.

1985-86 — Write off last season for Steve Payne. The muscular left wing underwent surgery to repair a cervical disk during training camp. He returned to the playing role on Dec. 17. He was starting to hit his stride when fate struck again. His right knee was torn up on Feb. 8. The subsequent surgery left him on crutches for the balance of the season. Payne paid diligent attention to rehabilitation of the injured limb during the summer, but is not expected to start the 1986-87 season with the North Stars.

His Game — Payne's style has not changed significantly since he came to Minnesota in 1978. He uses his size and strength to gain a favorable position in front of the net or in the slot and scores the majority of his goals from short range on deflections and rebounds. His goals often come in bunches. He had at least one hat trick in each of his first five professional seasons but did not manage to score one in either of the last two seasons, leaving his total at six. He is a strong skater, one the opposition has a hard time knocking off the puck.

Career — He has scored more career goals (223) and single-season goals (42) than any left wing in the North Stars' history. He now ranks second on the team's all-time goal scoring list behind Bill Goldsworthy. He stands third in all-time points at 452 and fifth in assists at 229.

Notes — Is an avid drag racing fan and during the off-season can often be found at Brainerd International Raceways in northern Minnesota . . . Would someday like to drive a funny car . . . Steve and his wife, Donna, have one son, Ryan . . . Likes to golf and fish . . . Also enjoys hunting and has two dogs, a brittany and a lab . . . Played junior hockey in Ottawa . . . Has scored 35 playoff goals, most ever by a North Star . . . Played in the 1980 and 1985 NHL All-Star games.

Obtained — Minnesota's second choice (19th overall) in 1978 Entry Draft.

Injury Update — The surgery Payne had last summer on his injured knee will probably keep him out of action until November.

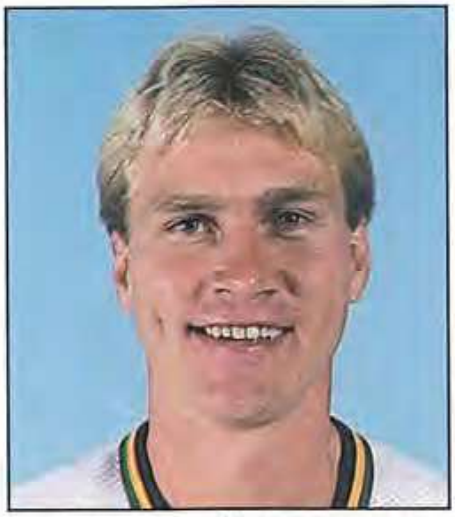
24 Willi Plett

Right Wing



Height: 6-3 —
Weight: 211 lbs.
191 cm. — 99 kg.
Age: 31
(June 7, 1955)

Born: Paraguay, South America
Off-Season Home: Marietta, Ga.

1985-86 — A sore shoulder cost Willi Plett 16 games last season and limited his effectiveness in a number of other contests. He missed five other games for other reasons. As a result of all these difficulties, Plett emerged from the season with 10 goals and 17 points, his smallest totals since he joined the NHL to stay in 1976-77 at Atlanta. He managed to maintain a high level of penalty minutes — a team-leading 231 — and performed with stouthearted zeal during the North Stars' lone round in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

His Game — Plett takes full advantage of his size and strength. He is able to park himself in front of the goal and fend off attempts to move his 211 pounds from that position. He is able to screen the opposing goaltender and lay the groundwork for deflections and tip-ins by himself, and also for goals by teammates that the goalie is unable to see until the last split second. Willi also is capable of controlling play along the boards and in back of the net.

Career — Plett was a late bloomer in junior hockey and was not drafted until the fifth round in 1975. But one year in the minor leagues gave him all the seasoning he needed. By 1976-77 he progressed to the point that he won NHL rookie of the year honors at Atlanta. He had his best season as a professional in 1980-81 when he scored 38 goals in the regular season, eight more in the playoffs and made life miserable for the North Stars while performing for Calgary.

Notes — Willi and his wife, Robin, are the parents of three sons, Bryan, Robbie and Blair . . . Born in South America, he moved to Canada with his family at an early age. His parents migrated to Paraguay after World War II from the USSR . . . Has lived in Atlanta in the off-season since he played there for the Flames.

Obtained — From Calgary on June 7, 1982, with Calgary's fourth choice in 1982 Entry Draft for Steve Christoff, Bill Nyrop and Minnesota's second choice in 1982 Entry Draft.

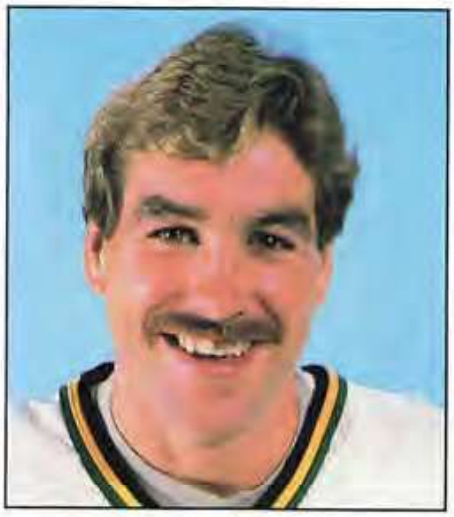
10 Gordie Roberts

Defense



Height: 6-0 —
Weight: 193 lbs.
180 cm. — 87 kg.
Age: 29
(Oct. 2, 1957)

Born: Detroit, Mich.
Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.

1985-86 — Gordie Roberts has played many roles during the six seasons he has performed for the North Stars. Last year he played the part of defensive defenseman. His offensive output dropped, but his value to the team stayed at a high level — his plus-minus record was plus-14, third best among Minnesota defensemen and only five away from the team lead. His plus-minus improved from even to plus-14 in the last 22 games.

His Game — Roberts' game has matured along with him. He has become a steady, sound force on the blue line. That's not to say he isn't capable of an end-to-end rush that brings the crowd to its feet.

Career — Gordie was signed at the age of 18 by the World Hockey Association's New England team. He played with the Whalers for five and a half seasons before he was traded to Minnesota. He led all WHA defensemen in scoring in back-to-back seasons, 1977-78 and 1978-79. Gordie has been named the North Stars' best defenseman twice and the team's most-improved player twice.

Notes — Named after Gordie Howe, he assisted on the final regular-season goal ever scored by the legendary performer . . . Enjoys tennis and biking . . . Gordie is the North Stars' player representative . . . Donates much of his time to Cystic Fibrosis . . . Is the most ardent reader of newspapers on the Minnesota roster . . . Played for the United States in the last two Canada Cup series . . . Gordie's wife, Marlo, has a degree in political science from the University of Hartford and studied interior design at the University of Minnesota . . . She and Gordie became the parents of their first child, a girl, during the 1985-86 season . . . Gordie embarked on a sales career last summer, retailing mobile telephones . . . His brother, Doug, also played pro hockey after a collegiate career at Michigan State.

Obtained — Traded by Hartford to Minnesota Dec. 16, 1980 for Mike Fidler.

Bob Rouse

Defense

Height: 6-1 —
Weight: 210 lbs.
183 cm. — 95 kg.
Age: 22
(June 18, 1964)

Born: Surrey, B.C.
Off-Season Home: Surrey, B.C.

1985-86 — Bob Rouse proved he was a solid NHL citizen last season. He showed that his rookie season of 1984-85 — he was voted the team's outstanding first-year player — was merely a taste of future delights. He played all but five of the 80 regular-season games and was a constant presence on the North Stars' blue line. Rouse scored only one goal, but it came at the right moment — in overtime against Toronto on Feb. 6 to give the North Stars an 8-7 victory. His plus-minus record of plus-15 was second only to team leader Curt Giles on the Minnesota defense.

His Game — By and large, Rouse is a defensively-oriented defenseman. That's not to say that he doesn't make the occasional offensive foray, but his emphasis is on the play in his end of the rink. He is physically powerful and can play a strong hitting game.

Career — Born and raised in the Canadian West, Rouse played all of his junior career in the Western League, performing for clubs in Billings, Mont.; Nanaimo, B.C., and Lethbridge, Alta., before joining the North Stars in 1984-85.

Notes — His defensive partner at Billings was the Bruins' Gord Kluzak, No. 1 overall draft selection in 1982 . . . Rouse was married last summer . . . His wife's name is Dianne . . . He scored his first NHL goal against Philadelphia on Oct. 23, 1984 . . . Played one game for the North Stars in 1983-84 when he still was a junior at Lethbridge . . . He missed the last two games of last year's playoffs because of a shoulder injury.

Obtained — Minnesota's fourth choice (80th overall) in 1982 Entry Draft.

Kari Takko

Goaltender

Height: 6-2 —
Weight: 182 lbs.
187 cm. — 81 kg.
Age: 24
(June 23, 1962)

Born: Kaupunki, Finland
Off-Season Home: Pori, Finland

1985-86 — Kari Takko wanted to get used to North American hockey in the minor leagues his first year. When his first season was over, Takko would have to say he received what he had intended. Takko played in 43 games with the AHL Springfield Indians, posting a 4.03 goals-against-average and a 18-19-3 record. Takko also made a brief appearance with the North Stars, stopping 30 shots in a 4-2 loss to Winnipeg March 8, 1986.

His Game — According to Bruce Landon, general manager of the Indians, "Takko is a great stand-up goalie that plays his angles very well." Landon, a former goalie for the WHA Whalers, also explains that, "Takko challenges shooters with his big size and rarely gives up a bad goal. Takko kept us in many games last year."

Career — Takko is a past most valuable player in the Finnish league, and played for Finland in the 1984 Olympics. Takko was Springfield's Most Valuable Player, the team's rookie of the year, and the booster club's MVP.

Notes — Landon explains that "Takko handles the puck extremely well for a European. There's more room behind the goal in Europe, and Kari has had to adjust to players bearing down on him more quickly behind the nets. If anything, Takko has to improve his work on rebounds to be successful in the NHL." Takko is married. His wife, Kirsi, son Karri (4) and daughter Kira (3) accompanied Takko in Springfield last year, and plan to move to the United States again this season.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent Sept. 3, 1985. He was a North Stars' fifth round selection (97th overall) in the 1984 Entry Draft.

34 Ron Wilson

Defense

Height: 5-10 —
Weight: 170 lbs.
178 cm. — 76.5 kg.
Age: 31
(May 28, 1955)

Born: Windsor, Ont.
Off-Season Home:
Narragansett, R.I.
Left Handed,
Shoots Right

1985-86 — Ron Wilson scored more than 70 points before he ever pulled on a North Stars sweater last season. He played until March for Davos of the Swiss League where he rang up 35 goals, 43 assists and 78 points. Wilson then turned out to be the North Stars' second leading scorer in the playoffs after scoring four points in 11 regular season games. On July 8, 1986, General Manager Lou Nanne completed an agreement that calls for Craig Levie to play for Davos this year and Wilson to play the entire season with the North Stars.

His Game — He is a mobile defenseman whose game is weighted toward the offensive side of defense. Wilson moves and passes the puck with skill and precision. He is particularly effective on the right point of the Minnesota power play.

Career — After a remarkable college career at Providence — he led the team's scoring all four seasons — Wilson signed a contract with Toronto. He played a couple of seasons with the Leafs, then chose to perform in Europe. He spent one season at Kloten and five with Davos.

Notes — He has loads of hockey in his bloodlines. His father, Larry, played in Detroit and Chicago in the six-team NHL and coached 11 seasons, including one in Detroit. His uncle, Johnny, played 11 years in the NHL coached at Detroit, Los Angeles, Colorado and Pittsburgh. Johnny Wilson played 580 consecutive games in the NHL, a record at that time . . . His brothers, Brad and Randy, played at Providence . . . Coached one year at Davos by Minnesotan Craig Sarner . . . Has a B.A. in economics . . . Though he was born in Canada, he was raised in the U.S. . . . Married, his wife's name is Maureen. They are the parents of two daughters.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent March 6, 1985.

NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

All three members of the North Stars' training staff return for the team's 20th season. Together, Trainer Dick (Doc) Rose, Assistant Trainer, Dave Smith, and Equipment Assistant, Mark Baribeau, have 34 years of NHL experience.

Rose, a native of St. Paul, begins his 17th season with the North Stars. He joined the North Stars in 1969 after gaining experience with the United States' Olympic Team and the South St. Paul Steers of the United States League. A bachelor, the 48 year old Rose spends most of off-season near Lutsen, Minn.

Smith, 43, begins his second season with the North Stars after eight years with the St. Louis Blues. He worked with the Cleveland entry in the World Hockey Association for four years and in the International and Ontario leagues. The Toronto native is married. He and his wife Maxine and their son make their home in Eagan.

Baribeau begins his second season as Equipment Assistant following four seasons as Rose's part-time assistant. Baribeau, 23, is a native and resident of Richfield.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Space in the Met Center pressbox is limited to those reporters and broadcasters covering the game.

Season press passes are issued to reporters and broadcasters who regularly cover the team. Single-game passes are available upon request to Dick Dillman, Public Relations Director, Minnesota North Stars, Met Center, 7901 Cedar Ave. South, Bloomington, Minn. 55420, 612-853-9377.

Single-game parking passes are extremely limited and should be requested well in advance of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers from television stations, accredited daily newspapers and major wire services may shoot from behind the goals, from the pressbox, from the concourse level and from the following seat locations:

D-A-1, J-A-1, K-A-3 and 4, R-A-1, V-A-8 and X-A-7.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Visiting television facilities are located on the south side of Met Center. The visiting radio position is on the north side. Requests for telephone circuits should be made directly to Northwestern Bell.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The North Stars' pressbox provides these services:

1. Press box announcing service.
2. Pre-game information and statistics and summaries at the completion of each period and at the conclusion of the game.
3. Closed circuit television pickup when the game is being televised and videotape pickup when the game is not televised.
4. A meal before each game in the Center Club and refreshments in the Center Club between periods and after the game.
5. Soft drinks for broadcst crews working in the radio-television area.
6. Reports on injuries, calls by officials and other situations that take place on the ice.
7. Transportation arrangements for journalists faced with tight schedules.
8. Reports on scores of games in other cities.
